MAR 31 1953

Dear Hugh:

I am afraid that I must decline your cordial invitation to speak at the Community Memorial Service on Sunday, May 24th. I do appreciate the honor which you do me in extending this invitation but it is virtually impossible for me to make a commitment of this sort under present conditions. While nothing would give me greater pleasure than to be present with you on that occasion I must refuse your invitation to "come over into Macedonia" and speak.

Sincerely yours,
